THE WORK BEGUN.

Excavations for the Feeble-Minded Institution Buildings to Be Pushed Forward From This Date.

On Monday of this week, a survey was made of the old fair grounds tract, upon which the buildings for the Feeble-Minded Institution are to be located. It marks the actual commencement of this work, as excavations are soon to follow for the foundation of the administration building of the colony.

Miss Hale, of Columbia, has arrived and will personally superintend the erection of the buildings.

In that the location of this institution means much to the future prosperity and growth of Marshall, it has been suggested, that the citizens make the laying of the corner-stone a big day in the history of our town, by appropriate exercises and celebration.

Epilepsy—Convulsions—Spasms.

Epilepsy is irritation and debility of the nerve centres. It occurs in paroxysms, with usually uncertain intervals between. Frequently, the attacks come suddenly; at other times, they are preceded by indisposition, vertigo and stupor. Injurious practices, excessive over-indulgence in all things harmful, result in Epilepsy. Silent or Night Epilepsy is usually brought on by an overloaded stomach.

DR. A. V. BANES SPECIFIC NERVEINE is a powerful nerve stimulant, attracts the blood from the brain, and holds the nerve centres in check, as splints support a broken limb.
